DISASTROUS BLAZE IN WARREN OIL REFINERY DID IMMENSE DAMAGE

Plant of Conewango Refining Company is Damaged to Extent of $600,000

Warren, Pa., May 7.—Plant No. one of the Conewango Refining company of this city, was damaged to the amount of about $600,000 by a fire that started today noon, presumably from a spark from a shifting engine. Lewis Jonhson, an employe, was severely burned when a large petroleum tank exploded. He is in the hospital, where it is said he will recover. Among the buildings destroyed were the barrel house to the loading rack, storage and utility tanks, pump house, office building, filter house and elevator house.

At midnight the refinery was still burning and there was no indication that it would be controlled before daylight.

The heavy black smoke from the fire north of town, hung over the borough like a pall throughout the afternoon and evening and at 8:30, ball games being played in the borough were called on account of darkness.

Low water pressure at the mains handicapped the firemen until the pumper truck recently purchased by the borough was placed in operation. Firemen did heroic work in saving valuable property surrounding the refinery. When it was discovered the office was doomed employes began carrying out valuable papers and records, but before all of these had ben rescued the structure was a mass of ruins.

The elevator house tipped over into the street, taking with it telephone and sreet car wires, severing communication to points north of this point. Burning grass spread the fire to tanks located on the hillside from the plant. At one time the pumper truck became so hot that it started to burn and it was necessary to turn the water on it to save it from destruction.

Residents in the immediate vicinity and across the creek were frequently endangered but hard work on the part of firemen and volunteers kept them from burning.

Eighteen tots from the Children's Home, destroyed Saturday night, who were being cared for in a house near the refinery, were moved back to the heart of the town during the afternoon, as a precautionary measure.

SMALL BOYS HAVE DANGEROUS EXPERIENCE WITH TORPEDO.

Lloyd Hackett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hacket, and Donald Newman who recently moved here from Ormsby, two boys of about eleven years of age, while playing along the Shawmut track near the tool house Sunday morning about eleven o'clock, found a torpedo, one of those which are used for train signals. One of the boys had fastened the wire from it around his wrist, when the other suggested he hit it and see what it would do. Which suggestion Donald promptly followed, using a piece of tile. The result was an explosion in which both boys were thrown to the ground and burned. Lloyd has one finger badly injured, and his wrist and both legs burned by powder.

Donald Newman had part of the palm of his right hand blown off, and a cut on the skin on his chest about three inches long and an inch wide.

At present both youngsters are improving rapidly, and will soon be in good shape again.

Dr. Robert Hamilton and Dr. Burg Chadwick attended to the lads injuries.

FIRE CO. DID QUICK WORK TO SAVE BENGS HOME FROM DESTRUCTION

Small Blaze on Monday Afternoon Resulted in Damage to Roof and Ceiling of a Room.

While Mr. C. S. Riley, the electrician was soldering an electrical joint in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bengs in Green street Monday afternoon in the presence of Mrs. Bengs they examined the joint to see if there was any fire and not seeing any left the room. Then he went and soldered some joints on the lower floor and after finishing went outside and Mrs. Bengs who was in the yard called to him that the roof was smoking.

Mr. Riley quickly ran to the phone and announced that there was fire at the Bengs house. He then went to the attic followed by Mrs. Bengs who passed him up a pail of water which he threw on the blaze and extinguished it inside the building.

The roof was still burning when the fire department arrived, damaging a space about six feet square. Total damage from fire and water is estimated at about $150.00 which was covered by insurance.

There was no electricity on at the time of the fire. The fire was discovered early and the local fire department was quickly on the job and prevented any considerable damage to the building.

The above is vouched for by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bengs.

SCHOOL CHILDREN SAW "ROBIN HOOD," GOING IN SPECIAL CHARTERED BUS

Mrs. Josephine Pogson, matron of the county jail, chaperoned a party of twenty-eight children of the local schools to Bradford last Saturday, going in a specially chartered bus at 8:30 in the morning for the purpose of witnessing the famous photoplay sensation, Douglas Fairbanks in Robin Hood, at Shea's theatre. Mrs. Pogson reserved seats for the children in advance and looked after their every interest throughout the day, which was immensely enjoyed by the entire party.

For this "last word" in Fairbank's super-feature which was on for the entire week, a United Artists release, a host of engineers, architects, artists, and artisans labored for months before ever a camera lens was opened.

Twenty-two experts delved and studied in the necessary research work for accurate designing of the colossal sets.

Libraries the world over were ransacked by these experts for authoritative facts in ascertaining the historical data that all might be presented truthfully to the period.

ALLEGED BOOTLEGGER ESCAPES STATE POLICE LEAVING CAR IN ROAD

Accused is said to be a Well Known Bradford Man Whose Early Arrest is Predicted.

An alleged vender of high power amber water, said to be a well known Bradford man whose name has not yet appeared in the official records of the case, is in hot water the beer secured by the officers at stone.

Although still at large, it is believed that his arrest is only a matter of days following discovery by analysis of the percentage of kick contained in the 'near beer' which, it is claimed, he has been distributing. Many barrels of the 'near beer' were confiscated by state troopers Gorenflo and Edwards of New York state and by Sheriff Frank Annis of Cattaraugus county, N. Y., during a raid at a storage house in Limestone early Saturday morning.

Officers claim the 'near beer' is so near that many experts have been unable to estimate the distance. At any rate samples of several barrels have been taken and chemists are now at work measuring the extent and quality of 'kick.'

That the principal in the case is still at large is due entirely to his ability as a sprinter, it is claimed, and to the temporary security afforded by the state line as the raid was made by New York state officers within their jurisdiction and the illegal purveyor of the frothy liquid is now in Bradford. Should the beer secured by the officers at Limestone, however, prove to have more than the Volstedian percentage of spirits, extradition proceedings will be started, it is said.

Excepting for the loss of a brand new Buick sedan automobile and a tiresome sprint for liberty, the Bradford man is reported as none the worse for the experience at Limestone.

Startling disclosures are promised by the raiding party for in the confiscated machine, they claim, were found books which the dealer kept for recording his sales. It is said that names of all customers of the alleged "beer dealer" since 1919 are entered in the books, with dates of delivery and amounts collected. Names of well-known people in Bradford and vicinity are said to be among the entries. The entries are interesting in that the figures show the fluctuation of the "beer market" during the past four years.

The outstanding features of the "market," it is claimed, is the fact that prices were given constant boosts. Except in one or two cases, no reductions are noted.—Bradford Era, May 7th.

SMETHPORT GIRL ONE OF PRINCIPAL SPEAKERS AT PITTSBURGH LUNCHEON.

Miss Martha Colegrove a Big Feature at M. E. Church Annual Conference Recently.

The Wesley Foundation of the Methodist Episcopal church was organized to take care of the religious life of Methodist students in Universities and Colleges not under the auspices of the church. At the luncheon given to further its interests at the annual conference in Pittsburgh, Miss Martha Colegrove, of Smethport, was one of the principal speakers.

Bishop McConnell and Dr. Sheldon of the Board of Education, were both present and were enthusiastic in their praise of the local girl's effort, Bishop McConnell, who is one of the most scholarly men in the church, said that it was the best thing he had ever heard along that particular line. In fact, so highly did they think of her arguments that they requested a copy of the address for publication in the church paper.

Miss Colegrove is a senior at Margaret Morrison school, Pittsburgh.—(Pittsburgh Oakland Methodist).

KUSHEQUA FIRE WAS NOT AS BAD AS DESCRIBED.

Elisha K. Kane, of Kushequa, writes as follows to the Republican: "In Monday's Republican was a news item, dated Kushequa which told of a fire endangering Kushequa and burning over 15,000 acres of land. Permit me to say that the fire referred to burning over only about 500 acres mostly in a pasture field of mine where the dry grass and weeds made it run rapidly and set on fire rotten stumps and logs left in Bullis' lumbering operations thirty years ago. Six fire wardens brought or sent men and in the afternoon, having chanced to find there was a fire there, I brought up reinforcements from Kushequa. Very little damage was done and Kushequa was at no time in the slightest danger. The fire was a mile north of the village and driving under an east wind toward the oil operations in the Riterville-Guiley oil field. It was checked within 1000 feet of the Geary Oil Co. wells the eastern outposts of the Riterville pool."—Kane Republican, May 8.

BODY OF BERT FRIEDMAN FOUND NEAR BUFFALO

Well Known Young Bradford Man Is Said to Have Hung Self to a Tree.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 6—While picking flowers in a field in the Kenney woods on the outskirts of Buffalo Saturday afternoon, Charles Cohn of No. 1401 Delaware avenue came upon the body of Bert Friedman, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Friedman of Bradford, Pa., and solved the mystery surrounding the dead man's disappearance from Dr. Dunham's sanatorium here last Tuesday.

Death by suicide was the verdict of Medical Examiner Danser who investigated the death. Friedman hung himself to a tree. The weight of the body had broken the branch and the body had fallen to the ground. He had been dead two days when discovered. Mrs. L. Muchley of No. 85 Parkside, said she had seen the body on the ground Friday but had believed the man was asleep.

In the dead man's pocket were found $25.

Bert Friedman, well known local young man, was reported missing from the sanatorium where he had been committed about three weeks ago last Wednesday. Investigation led the Buffalo police to believe he had gone to New York city and a search for him was being conducted in the metropolis. Hyman Friedman, brother of the suicide, had gone to Buffalo to investigate the disappearance and returned here Friday night.

That he was mentally unbalanced when he took his life, is the belief of investigators and of members of his family.—Bradford Era.

An open competitive examination will be held to fill the vacancy to be created in the local postoffice by the expiration, next August 5th, of the term of Postmaster Edward R. Denson.

However, the civil service machinery will be used to select the nominee.

All male and women citizens of Mt. Jewett are eligible to apply for the examination. Those who desire the examination should at once apply at the local postoffice for forms No. 2241, and No. 2253. Applications must be filed with the Commission at Washington, D. C.

Examination will be held at Smethport, May 12th, 1923.—Mt. Jewett Echo.

MOTHER FOUND BABY DEAD IN CARRIAGE ON STREET.

Mrs. Frank Dodge of 320 Moffit street, Kane, Pa., while wheeling her baby in a carriage on Thursday afternoon discovered that the child, an infant about two months old, was dead.

The baby had been sick for about five weeks and the mother had been advised to keep it in the sunshine as much as possible so she took him out every day that the sun shone.

She stopped opposite the Kane Drug Store and was alarmed at the peculiar appearance of the baby which five minutes earlier had seemed as comfortable as during his illness. She quickly called Dr. Dana who pronounced the child dead.

The funeral of the baby, whose name was Gilbert Dodge and who is survived by two older brothers besides the parents was held at their home at two o'clok Saturday afternoon with burial in Forest Lawn cemetery.

NO BATHS FOR OLEAN FOLK ON USUAL NIGHT

Residents Find Water as Black As Ink.

Olean, May 7.—Olean residents accustomed to their regular Saturday night bath tub swim, went to bed without Saturday night.

The water coming from the faucets was as black as ink for the city water department employes, instead of doing other city employes but a half holiday on Saturday, cleaned out the big reservoir in the afternoon. City housewives were forced to take a vacation instead it seemed, for they claimed the department shut off the water in the afternoon without advertising the dry spell.

GOVERNOR PINCHOT IS STRONG FOR MUSIC WEEK

All Pennsylvania Should Join in the Observance of May 13th to 19th.

Governor Governor Pinchot says in his message: "Try to contemplate a parliament without a band; a theatre without an orchestra; a school without its songs; a nation without its national anthem; or a home without some form of musical instrument. Try to visualize the tremendous influence which each would sustain. The patriotism of a nation would suffer a serious setback in its ability to be invoked; the discipline of an army would be seriously affected; the church would fall short in its ability to convey its message; theatres would be closed, and the home would be, as many are now for that very reason, an unattractive, barren place.

"Only by such a review of the tremendous power of music can we approach an appreciation of its real value. To those exhausted in body, fatigued in mind, or broken and discouraged in spirit there is no finer restorative than the pleasure and forgetfulness of good music.

For all these reasons, I think it most timely and proper that we join in the observance of Pennsylvania's Music Week, for which the days May 13th to 19th have been designated. Let us try to keep Pennsylvania one of the musical centers of America?"

GIVING EUROPEAN LECTURERS SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.

In view of the fact that so many Europeans have taken it upon themselves to hand out a great deal of kindergarten instructions as to what Americans ought to do and how they ought to behave, even leaving their native shores to come over here and tell us, the Chicago Tribune thinks the time is ripe for telling Europe something, and it does editorially without mincing words.

"The trouble with Europe, says the Tribune is that it is so extensively inhabited by Europeans. Also says the Tribune, rather pointedly, Europe is the only continent which has made complete failure of peace. Even China and Japan have managed a miracle of good relations as compared with the madhouse Europe has created out of its civilization, the Chicago newspaper declares, continuing:

"The United States is at peace and is prosperous. It is not adding to the tribulations of any other people. It has done something to relieve people from famine and disease. Some of its money is in nearly every pocket in Europe. Some of its wheat has been in many European bins. Its citizens are paying heavily to the American tax collector.

"The American sacrifice to European folly has been enough. Americans are disliked by Europeans. The gunmen who are destroying life there regard the United States with contempt, but they seek to beguile it into further complications because they think that if America sits down at a table with them they will be able to continue misbehaving and escape the consequence of it. If there is heat in these expressions it is because we think the situation justifies an indulgence in indignation.

"In Saturday's paper the reader learned that some 200,000 packing houses employes had been given a raise in wages without a controversy, and that 32,000 workmen in Berlin are walking the streets, hungry. America has managed the peace in one fashion, Europe in another. It will be replied that there were the devastations of war in Europe. Those wounds could have been healed. The wounds of peace are proving fatal.

"It may be said that there is a disease in Europe which will spread to us if we do not help to cure it. That may be so. Our prosperity, possibly, cannot be maintained if we alone are well off, but we cannot cure a disease unless we have a surgeon's authority."

All these things are worthy of the serious thought of patriotic Americans as well as for the information of the self-appointed European schoolmasters. There is yet, thank God, some such thing in this country as patriotism.—Clarksburg, W. Va., Telegram.

HARDING STEADFAST.

President Harding tells us that we need not worry about our relationship with the rest of the world. The people are not worrying. When they put Mr. Harding in the White House by a vote that directed him to keep the country out of the league of nations, they knew that the fundamental principle of our foreign relations, that of no entanglements with other countries, was safe for another four years at least. Mr. Harding had not only voted against American entrance into the league while he was Senator, but he made that policy the Main issue of his campaign, and won out by 7,000,000 plurality. Since his inauguration the President has rejected every attempt however seductive, to alter the American stand on world affairs. His steadfastness in that regard is one of the strongest supports for his bid for renomination and reelection.

BOYS FISH TWO WATCHES FROM CREEK BOTTOM.

Church people on their way home from services yesterday morning were startled out of their usual Sunday calm when they saw several boys fishing off the Main street bridge almost in front of the B., R. & P. station—and not for fish either, but for watches which were lying on the botton of the stream, in plain sight of all passersby.

The boys naturally had some trouble in getting hold of the watches, but finally they were seen to pull two time pieces out of the water. One was an open face watch and the other had a hunting case. They were men's watches. The boys walked home with their finds.

The police were notified of the incident and it is their belief that a thief, fearing arrest, threw his loot over the bridge when making a quick get-away. Chief Solt today visited the boys' home to see the watches but the new owners were out and he will call again this evening.—Era, May 7.

"WITHOUT MOTHER."

"It's awful lonesome at our house
Thout mother;
It's just as quiet as a mouse
Thout mother.
An' father looks so lonely there
Of evenin's sittin' in his chair;
It just ain't cheerful anywhere
Thout mother.

"It's awful hard to get along
Thout mother.
It seems that everything goes wrong
Thout mother.
Course, father does the best he can;
But then, you know, he's just a man,
An' don't know how to fix an' plan
Like mother.

"Seems like I don't enjoy my play
Thout mother.
Things just get worser every day
Thout mother.
There's no one now to mend my doll;
Nobody's sorry when I fall—
O, home just ain't no place at all
Thout mother.

"But father says we must be brave
Thout mother
'Cause him an' me we only have
One 'nother;
An' if we're brave, an' strong, an' true,
An' good, just like she told us to,
We'll go up home, when life is through,
To mother!" —M. Bulbrath.

FIFTEEN NEW BUILDINGS WILL BE ADDED TO THE BELL SYSTEM IN PENNSYLVANIA THIS YEAR

AND this does not include twenty large additions to present central office buildings.

Nearly four millions of dollars will be spent on building construction alone.

Millions of dollars' worth of equipment will be placed in them—switchboards, cables, terminal room apparatus, and other central office mechanisms.

We spent three millions for land and buildings last year, but the growing needs for telephone service in Pennsylvania make necessary a continuation of this tremendous construction program.

NOTES FROM McKEAN COUNTY FARM BUREAU REPORT.

RAPE PASTURE

A demonstration of rape pasture for feeding lambs was conducted at the farm of John Carlson at Turtle Point. Two acres of rape were put out for the purpose of carrying 52 lambs and a few ewes. The crop itself was put out according to the advice of the County Agent. The results of the demonstration were as follows:

Original Weight	Total Gain	Avr. Gain per lamb per day
3133.5	656.5	.485
277	57	.73

	Number	Time on Rape
Lambs	52	26 days
Ewes	2	26 days

The cost of producing two acres of rape including plowing, harrowing, sowing, cost of seed, cost of fence and caring for the lambs on the rape totals $28.60. These lambs, due to their fine condition of flesh, were sold one cent in advance of the regular market price which would mean $37.90 profit to say nothing of the value of the gain, which is nearly twice the gain of lambs under the average farm care. Net profit $37.90.

MANAGEMENT DEMONSTRATION

Demonstrations were held in different parts of the county for the purpose of showing the best methods of docking and castrating lambs. Another piece of work, first demonstrated by Dr. Turner of the Harrisburg Department, was later demonstrated by the County Agent in different parts of the county. This was the drenching for stomach worms using Copper Sulphate. Considerable interest has been shown and requests are coming in to the office for materials and directions to carry on this work privately.

POULTRY CULLING.

In addition to the above years management work, there were several poultry culling demonstrations given numbering in all thirteen, reaching as many communities.

McKEAN COUNTY SHEEP AND WOOL GROWERS' ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED.

The County Agent worked along with the above named organization in all its undertakings and the Farm Bureau Office force was also used a great deal to do this work.

BETTER BUTTER CAMPAIGN.

The Better Butter Campaign of Minard Run, which was mentioned in the report of the year ending November 30, 1921, continued their work and exhibited their products at the State Show at Harrisburg where two prizes were won—first by F. J. Glover and ended by A. S. Cronse, McKean County. This is no doubt a measure of the success of this work.

POULTRY.

Meets throughout week.

necessitate a long feeding period to carry over brood sows.

One community, however, asked for a purebred breeders Association, but as yet it has not been formed due to the lack of decision as to breed. Individuals have been assisted in hog work especially in regard to management and two purebred Berkshires were imported from the largest breeders Association in the State.

BEEF CATTLE.

A large percentage of McKean County consists of cut over timber land which has grown up to the native grasses which are apparently very good for pasturing livestock. Some interest has been shown in pasturing work, so that the Beef Cattle Extension specialist assisted in two communities in the purchasing and management and marketing of 222 head of steers. These cattle were pure bred in early spring, placed on pasture and sold during the month of September.

In addition to the pasturing proposition, on one farm beef production was also carried out. In this case a purebred Hereford bull was used on grade Shorthorn cows. The result was some mighty fine calves which would make good baby beef. This project is now in the fattening room of cows and heifers.

FARM ECONOMICS.

Farm Accounts.

Three of the organized committies asked for farm accounts to be placed in their communities. Twenty-seven farm account books were placed with farmers who agreed to keep them and were most of them started with the assistance of the County Agent. During the time of organizing the program for 1922, the Farm Bureau had planned on an assistant. The Extension Department was, however, unable to give the County Agent an assistant which necessitated a neglect of some of the work. The Farm Accounts year has not ended as yet, so that the number of accounts completed can not be accounted for.

POULTRY ACCOUNTS.

Fourteen poultrymen, by special request were furnished with poultry account books for the purpose of keeping a complete record of the poultry on thier farms.

MARKETING.

Selling.

The Sheep and Wool Growers Association, mentioned under sheep projects, marketed cooperatively the wool of this year's clip and in addition to this a carload of lambs. In both cases the County Agent and the Sheep specialist were obliged to assist a great deal.

The Beef extension specialist, especially and the County Agent in part assisted in the marketing of the 222 head of beef cattle which were placed on pasture in McKean County in 1922.

Purchasing.

The Farm Bureau did a large part of the work in the purchasing of thirteen carloads of fertilizers through the Sheep and wool Association. The directors of the Association appointed a member of their organization in each community as an agent. These agents reported all orders to the Farm Bureau office where they were compiled and forwarded to the company.

Disease free seed potatoes were also handled through the Farm Bureau office. One hundred and fifty bushels of seed were distributed to eighteen different farms.

Spray materials were handled through the Farm Bureau for all those spraying orchards and potatoes in the County. About two and one half tons of copper sulphate, six hundred pounds of arsenate of lead, and one and one half tons of lime are the approximate amounts handled. In addition to this Nicotine Sulphate, Black Leaf 40 [illegible]

ORCHARD SPRAYING.

The Farm Bureau assisted three communities in deciding upon and purchasing three power outfits for spraying orchards. In addition to these, one other was used. The total number of acres sprayed by these machines was forty-five. A great deal of time was spent by the County Agent in this work because of the lack of experience in handling such machinery on the part of the farmers. There were four orchard spraying demonstration showing the proper method of applying the spray and not for results in yield. It was readily noticed on the curb market Bradford that the man who had sprayed his fruit could dispose of all his apples at a price equal to or greater than the average on the market while others would experince a great deal of difficulty in getting rid of theirs.

ANNUAL PICNIC.

The Grange, Farm Bureau and Dairymen's League cooperated, as they have in past years, to put on a picnic for the county. Plans of the picnic are more for Sociability than anything else. [illegible] at least one contest or so on the program. This year a brass band furnished music the entire day. The usual contests, except athletic contests other than base ball some of which were [illegible] were on the sports end of the program. The attendance at the picnic this year was right large and interesting.

McKEAN COUNTY FAIR.

Judging Contest.

The Farm Bureau held at the McKean County Fair its seventh annual Stock Judging contest. Twenty-four boys took part in judging a ring of dairy cattle and a ring of mutton sheep. The prizes were as follows.

FIRST PRIZE—Pure bred heifer, calf, (Ayershire), Otto Clark, Port Allegany. Silver Loving Cup, Otto Clark, Port Allegany.

SECOND PRIZE—Little Pig, Arthus Manning, Port Allegany, Pa.

THIRD PRIZE—Hoard's Dairyman, George Niles; Harold Hermanson; John Long.—Ohio Farmer, Victor Brown. County Agent, Clarence Hermanson.

A special prize of a silver cup was offered to the boy scoring highest in judging dairy cattle and this was won by Otto Clark, and awarded to him by the Pennsylvania Bankers Association. The purebred calf was donated by the County Home Farm and is an exceptionally good purebred Ayrshire. The pig was donated by E. W. Jones of Smethport, and the papers by the respective publishers.

Bell Telephone System stock may be purchased at any Business office of the Company, according to an announcement by manager today. Purchases may be made for cash or on the installment plan.

This plan is put in effect through the Bell Telephone Securities Co., a part of the Bell System. When an order is placed at the local office, the stock is purchased on the New York Stock Exchange by the Securities Company. The price quoted each day is the previous day's closing on the Exchange.

During the past year efforts have been made to widen the distribution of Bell System stock through local banks and brokers. The new plan is supplementary to the previous efforts and places the stock within the reach of many who may desire to purchase it, but who have no local connection through which the purchase may be financed.

The Securities Company is not financing this plan on a profit making basis, but is carrying out the ideal of the Bell System "Every Subscriber a stockholder."

The American Telephone & Telegraph Co., (Bell System) has the widest stock distribution of any corporation in the country today. There are more than a quarter of a million stockholders. With this new system of distribution, by which the stock may be purchased on very low monthly installments, there should be a still greater increase in the number of share holders.

McKEAN COUNTY INCLUDED IN COMBINATION SUPPLY OF ELECTRIC POWER

Erie, Pa., May 5.—Three great super-power companies will control Pennsylvania if moves now under way are carried out. The largest of these, the Penn Public Service corporation, in which the Erie Lighting & Power company has been included, has authorized increase of capital stock from $20,000,000 to $100,000,000 so as to embrace all rights in the western third of the state.

The western counties system extends now from Erie down through at least a third of the state into Maryland. The company has under construction the great Clarion river dam, to be followed by two more, for generating electricity by water power. Rumors are that as a result of the increased capitalization construction is soon to begin on the headwaters of the Youghiogheny river across the Maryland line.

In the northeastern part of the state approval of the incorporation of 32 additional township electric companies has been sought from the Public Service commission. These are all to be merged later into the Pennsylvania Power and light company of Allentown. Current for the great network of lines which will result will be generated at the monster dam to be erected at Hawly on the Wallenpaupack creek between Wayne and Pike counties.

Upstate the Keystone Power corporation took over the Potter county interests, extending the system which now serves part of Elk, Cameron, Clinton and Center counties, into McKean and Potter.

BEGINS LAW SUIT AGAINST JAR COMPANY.

Lawrence Richardson of Betula and James Quirk of Smethport stockholders in the Saeger corporation, with a plant under course of construction at Betula, visited Buffalo last week where Mr. Richardson started action against Mr. Saeger, inventor of a patent glass container hermetically sealed by vacuum process, to recover several thousand dollars advanced by him, personally, to secure materials for the Betula plant.

This is the start of a series of suits which are expected to be brought by Saeger stockholders.

Although the work of remodeling the former barrel stave factory at Betula has been in progress for nearly two years the plant is still far from being ready for business. The Saeger company purchased the stave mill, electric plant and forty houses at Betula upon the passing of the lumber operations in that vicinity in 1921.—Bradford Evening Star, May 5.

SLIGHT BLAZE.

The firemen were called out last Thursday evening to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas Larson on Center street, but owing to the timely work of Mr. Geo. Kelley, their neighbor, their services were not needed. Mrs. Larson had noticed the odor of gas and one of her sons proceeded to the cellar and while there lighted a match, then owing to the amount of escaping gas it ignited and caught fire under the kitchen floor. Mr. Larson proceeded to turn the gas off at the street, while Mr. Kelley, who lives next door immediately got busy with pails of water handed him by the children, and quenched same before it had gained any headway.—Eldred Eagle, May 3.
